By Edwin Gentzler : Translation and Identity in the Americas a peer reviewed international journal that bridges the gap between research and practice in information design post colonial translation theory and practice edited by susan bassnett and harish trivedi london and new york Translation and Identity in the Americas:

Translation is a highly contested site in the Americas where different groups often with competing literary or political interests vie for space and approval. In its survey of these multiple and competing groups and its study of the geographic, socio-political and cultural aspects of translation, Edwin Gentzler's book demonstrates that the Americas are a fruitful terrain for the field of translation studies. Building on research from a variety of sources, Edwin Gentzler's latest book travels a lively itinerary from north to south investigating the complexity of language interactions from Quebec to Brazil. This is a vivid and strikingly original perspective on the melange of cultures which make up the Americas.
