Disarming Words: Empire and the Seductions of Translation in Egypt (FlashPoints):

0 of 0 review helpful A very smart addition to the scholarship on modern Egypt and European By Fulano Mengano A very smart addition to the scholarship on modern Egypt and European colonial culture I don't buy the psychoanalytic scaffolding in some sections but have to acknowledge that the author uses it profitably to make new connections I've taught it a few times in a translation course and students love reading this In a book that radically challenges conventional understandings of the dynamics of cultural imperialism Shaden M Tageldin unravels the complex relationship between translation and seduction in the colonial context She examines the afterlives of two occupations of Egypt by the French in 1798 and by the British in 1882 in a rich comparative analysis of acts fictions and theories that translated the European into the Egyptian the Arab or the Muslim Tageldin finds
