Donne (Translation Studies):

François Massardier Kenney's translation of Antoine Berman's Toward a Translation Criticism makes available for the first time in the English speaking world one of the twentieth century's foundational texts in translation studies. Berman's book, published posthumously in France, develops an original concept of "criticism of translation" and a methodology to anchor the practice of this criticism. He demonstrates how, about the Author Antoine Berman (1942–1991), was a French translator, historian, and theorist of translation. François Massardier Kenney is professor of French and Director of the Institute for Applied Linguistics at Kent State University. She is the
