By Primrose Arnander, Marie-Helene Claudel Gilly : Don't Toss Granny in the Begonias: and other French proverbs with English Equivalents Don't Toss Granny in the Begonias: and other French proverbs with English Equivalents:

Continuing the popular series of proverbs from around the world each paired with an English equivalent Don't Toss Granny in the Begonias sheds an amusing and often intriguing light on the rivalry between the French and the English an odd couple who from time immemorial like to dislike or is it dislike liking each other How curious that the French say 'Filer à l'anglaise' while the English insist on taking French leave
